2 (b). Regional
Kazakhstan	June 2008-May 2009	Kazakhstan has played a significant role in the effort to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in Central Asia. Efforts by the five Central Asian States, including Kazakhstan, brought into force a treaty establishing a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the Central Asian region. The treaty creating a zone free of nuclear weapons in Central Asia entered into force on 21 March 2009

[a] The present report includes activities that have been completed (i.e., that are not ongoing or planned) and that were aimed at promoting the entry into force of the Treaty.
